Gem Sofa

Press release — Autumn 2022

Like any hidden gem, it takes the touch of a truly skilled craftsman to release the inner beauty of an otherwise overlooked jewel or stone.

Designed by the award-winning Meike Harde, and the latest stylish sofa to be added to the Northern collection, Gem will undoubtedly become the striking centrepiece of any room.

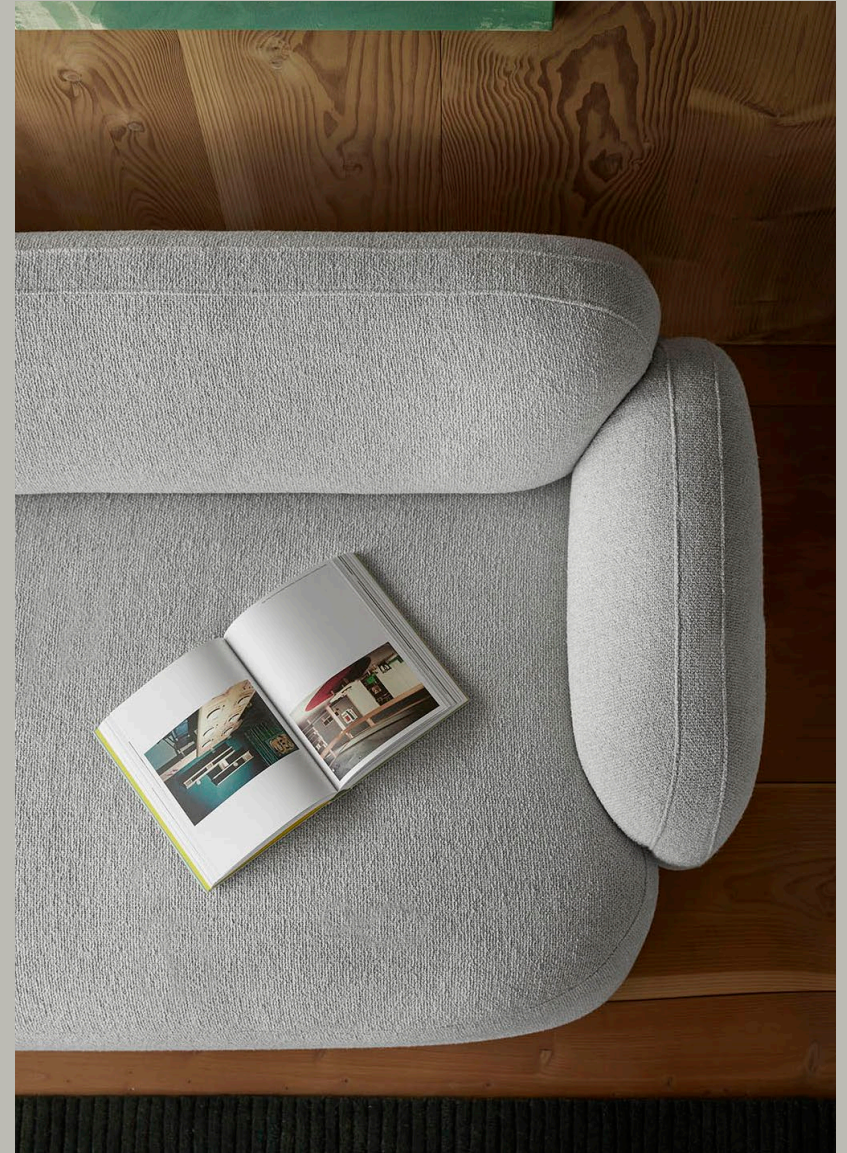

Thanks to its appealing deep seat, embracing wide backrest and low curved arms, Gem offers the utmost in comfort and cosiness.

Perfectly suited for lounging, napping, or socialising, foam filled for long-lasting support and fully upholstered in a range of high quality Kvadrat fabrics, this charming and contemporary take on a classic sofa is one you will treasure for many years to come.

“The experience of a design often relates to how it looks and feels, but for me every decorative decision should also walk hand in hand with a useful purpose.”

Meike Harde is a multidisciplinary designer who opened her own Cologne-based design studio in 2013. After completing her studies in product design at the HBKsaar, an art and design university in South West Germany, she completed an internship with leading London design entrepreneur, Benjamin Hubert.

Now a multiple award-winning name in her own right, and collaborating with brands from around the world, Meike Harde is meticulous in every aspect of her work. Known internationally for her contemporary take on textiles and patterns, she specialises in upholstery, furniture, and lighting. Taking the latest applications and manufacturing technologies to reinterpret classic contexts and create visually appealing, as well as carefully constructed, smart designs.

About

The Northern brand was born in the studios of Northern Lighting, where a team of creatives have been illuminating lives since 2005. The new lifestyle collection includes furniture, lighting and accessories. Inspired by the pale beauty and rough-cut contrasts of the North, the Oslo-based brand is Nordic in spirit, yet global in style.
