Finally, the existing Loud Bar Cabinet, now comes in a light oiled oak and smoked oak option. Still with integrated metal edges and brackets to keep bottles and barware upright when on the move, this fun-filled drinks trolley always makes a statement.

Whichever piece you choose, whether it's the large Loud Cabinet, the elegant Loud Sideboard, or the distinctive Loud Bar Cabinet, each one serves multiple purposes and offers timeless storage solutions that will fit effortlessly into your home.

“This low and high cabinet bring softness to a room. Where a cabinet is usually very angular Loud makes the sides and front flow into each other in one go.”

Färg & Blanche was founded by Swedish designer Fredrik Färg and designer Emma Marga Blanche, who was born in France. They established their studio in Stockholm in 2010, where the designers work across a range of disciplines. Färg & Blanche launch their own design collections, produce limited art editions and collaborate with established furniture brands. Known for works that straddle the divide between understated luxury, traditional craft and contemporary Nordic chic, Färg & Blanche are a natural fit for Northern.

Their cabinet series, Loud, is designed without embellishments and crafted with smooth contours. Loud speaks in a soft voice, yet clearly articulates cutting-edge style.
