Gem Series

Press release — Autumn 2023

Whether you need an extra seat for a welcome guest, a place to pop a tray of drinks, or simply somewhere to put your feet up, the new Gem Chair and Pouf are designed to be comfortable as well as sociable.

Created by the multiple award-winning German furniture designer Meike Harde to accompany the existing Gem sofa, these two charming additions share the same soft and sophisticated expression.

The Gem Chair, with its inviting deep seat and comforting arched backrest comes in two versions, with or without armrests, while the hard-working Gem Pouf also has a practical loop at the top so it can be easily moved around.

Crafted to the highest quality, all have oak legs, are filled with long-lasting high resilience foam filling, and come fully upholstered in a range of outstanding fabrics.

Lounging or entertaining, the Gem series allows you to tailor your seating arrangements to suit you and your space perfectly.

“Rather than using standard block shapes the large friendly curves and voluminous scale of the Gem series will bring happiness into the living room.”
